Do you need help accessing court because of a disability?

Illinois courts are committed to removing barriers that prevent the full and meaningful participation of anyone with a disability in the court system.

For help or information, contact the above Court Disability Coordinator.

Help for people with disabilities is available. This may be:

- Qualified sign language interpreters, assistive listening devices
- Documents made available in large-print
- Access for service animals
- Help completing court documents
- Allowing companions, support workers, care providers, and family members

Requests may be made by any means (for example, in writing or verbally). For faster responses, you are encouraged to make your request to the Court Disability Coordinator.

Request forms are available through the Court Disability Coordinator and by visiting: www.whitesidecountylil.gov
